Preschool Family Participation and Communication Policy

Introduction

“Partnerships with families contribute to building a strong, inclusive community within the service. Continuous, honest and open two-way communication with educators assists families to feel connected with their children’s experience in education and care and helps them develop trust and confidence in the service. Shared decision making with families supports consistency between children’s experiences at home and at the service, helping children to feel safe, secure and supported.” Guide to the National Quality Standard (3) ACECQA (2011), p.148

Family participation in the education and care service is an important part of making the service a true part of the community and creating an environment that is welcoming and inclusive and supports a sense of belonging for children, families and educators.

Goals – What are we going to do?

• Welcome and facilitate family participation and open communication by encouraging families to engage with their children’s education and care. Families are invited to attend P&C meetings, assist with projects and attend social gatherings. Kemblawarra Public School Preschool has an open door policy for families.
• Value the input of families, educators and the wider community to help create service that meets the needs of the children who attend this preschool.
• Encourage open communication through the enrolment and orientation process, policy review, feedback forms, the P&C, the daily program, documentation, formal and informal meetings, emails and conversations.

- Promote continuous open and honest two way communication with families to assist them to feel connected with their children’s experiences in the education and care setting and to develop families’ trust and confidence in the services we provide.
- Value parents as the first and most important educator in their child’s life, seeking to share the parent’s understandings, knowledge and preferences for their child and seeking to balance individual needs with practice in the education and care service.
- Recognize that because families, and parents in particular, are often busy with many competing priorities, they will need to consider a range of strategies to build and maintain relationships with each family.

- Be encouraged to attend children’s excursions to help meet required ratios and to support their children’s knowledge of and engagement in their community.
- Be invited to assist with working bees in the preschool. These will be arranged from time to time to help maintain equipment and the education and care environment and will be a family event where children can also participate.
